

Events Summary

Year 3: April 2015 to March 2016

This is a summary of our events for the year, derived from the listings on our website.

Second Tuesday 14 April 2015 Themed Reading: 'Allo 'Allo Free/£3

A just for fun reading of the famous 'Allo 'Allo - a chance to try out that French accent or to just 'leesen verr-ry carrre-foo-ly'. We'll provide bread and cheese (and maybe knockwurst) - just bring what you drink, and ideally dress the part: 'It is I, Le Clerc'. Members free, others £3. At Vinters Studios, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG at 7pm for 7.30pm start.

Second Tuesday 12 May 2015: An Approach to Staging Workshop Free/£3

Led by Mhairi Grealis. 7pm for 7.30pm at Vinters. Directing is a challenging job and one of the key aspects is how the play will look and what that does to help tell the story. This workshop will focus on all of the challenges of staging a play, from stage composition, to working with designers to create meaning and atmosphere. Mhairi is an experienced theatre person, local resident and good friend of STC. Members free. Others £3 or you can join on the night.

Second Tuesday 9 June 2015: Auditioning and Interviews Workshop Free/£3

Led by Sarah Berger. Going to auditions and interviews for parts can be a challenge. Sarah brings her experience and knowledge from both sides of the process to help you in theatre and also in other areas of work or life. Sarah is an actor on stage and screen, a director, a writer and the creator of the So & So Arts Club. 7pm for 7.30pm at Vinters. Members free. Others £3 or you can join on the night.

Performances 3, 4 & 11 July 2015: Breaking the Code Ticketed

Following on from the recent film 'The Imitation Game', our production of Hugh Whitemore's play focuses on Turing the man, his personal moral code, the relationships that influenced his life and his struggle to appreciate the conventions and laws of 1950s society. The Studio, Streatham Hill Theatre (Beacon Bingo), 110 Streatham Hill.
